Old Business:

The Christmas parade was a huge success. We still have quite a few song books to pass out.

Christmas Concert is this Wednesday at 7:00. We will have door prizes that include a Keurig and a 32" LED TV

Fruit Sales: Just finished. We still have a couple of fruit orders waiting to be picked up. We don't have exact figures for the fruit sales. We should have exact amounts at the next meeting. We should start strawberry sales in the middle of January.

Patch sales are still open. Ben will make another announcement at the concert Wednesday

Show patches will be given out to the students during band class tomorrow

We are $28,000 in arrears for band fees. Dr. Fee has been notified to attempt collecting funds from seniors.

New Business:

Ad hoc committees: Need volunteers for the budget review and by-law committee. Volunteers must be current active members. See a board member or e-mail a board member if you're interested.

No director's remarks since Mr. Trobaugh was not in attendance.

Question raised by Tina Russell regarding the storage building. Rick mentioned the increase in cost since we want the concrete floor. Rick will have to meet with the football boosters. Jennifer Wilson will mention it to the football boosters again to arrange a meeting.

Per Mr. Norris: equipment trucks will be taken to his shop for minor repairs and general house cleaning.

Mr. Norris asked about the status of the banners used in the show. Per Ben, Kaitlyn is trying to sell them.
